

Jay McCleary Sustainability Award

Do you know someone in the Red Wing area who has worked to advance sustainability and promote environmental awareness? Nominate that business, organization, or individual for the Jay McCleary Sustainability Award.

To promote sustainability and environmental stewardship in the community, the City of Red Wing has established the Jay McCleary Sustainability Award. The award recognizes innovative programs and practices made by businesses, organizations and/or individuals that contribute to the vitality, sustainability and resilience of the community. Residents may nominate their own projects or be nominated by another party. A selection committee of the Red Wing Sustainability Commission will choose the award recipient(s). Nominations will close on February 28, 2022. If you would like to include more information on the nominee, please feel free to attach further documentation.
